

Frequently Asked Questions

Question: Can daily summary forms be in Turkish or English?

Answer: Yes.

Question: Can the summer practice report be in Turkish or English?

Answer: No, the summer practice report must be in English.

Question: After writing the summer practice report, do we need to have our advisors sign each paper?

Answer: You do not need to sign every piece of paper. Simply have the summary forms signed.

Question: Can summer practice be done at universities?

Answer: We only allow summer practices to be carried out abroad or at our University with a professor in the project for CE 400.

Question: I am taking courses at the summer school, in this case it is not possible for me to do an internship continuously for a month. Can I divide my internship calendar into two, 10+10 working days before the summer school and after the summer school?

Answer: We cannot divide the CE 300 course.

Question: Is it mandatory to have a civil engineer at the workplace where I do my summer practice?

Answer: There is a requirement to have at least 1 civil engineer at the place where you do your internship.

Question: Should I write the summer practice report after the internship?

Answer: Please fill out the summary form every day. When you finish your internship, you can write your summer practice report without taking a break. If you want, you can start writing your report after the first week of your internship is over.

Question: Can I do my CE 300 and CE 400 summer practices at the same place? If I do my internship at the same place, can I submit a single report?

Answer: You can do your internship at the same place. You will be submitting a separate summer practice report for each internship.

Question: I am in probation status. I did the CE 300/400 summer practice. Should I submit my summer practice report in the fall semester?

Answer: Summer practice evaluation is done after you successfully complete your summer practice within the specified periods and your summer practice report is found to be successful. For this reason, all our students must submit their reports at the same time. This also applies to students who are on probation and cannot enroll in classes this term. Reports submitted late will not be evaluated.
